

Financial Accountability Reflection

Think about financial accountability in your agency.

- 1. What monitoring activities does your agency do to assure that services provided are only those in the approved service plan?

- 2. What should you do if you discovered that services not covered in the plan were being provided?

Tip:

Ask your supervisor if you have any questions.